

Howdy Pard, this is a reminder for anyone who has an instrument to bring it to Range War for our Saturday Night Cowboy Campfire. This includes guitars, banjos, harmonicas, flutes and pretty much everything else that you think others may enjoy listening to.

If you cannot play an instrument and would just like to sing a song or recite poetry (all G-Rated) that would be fine also. Last year Andy Horsurodinon recited a nice rendition of Johnny Cash's Ragged Old Flag. Our plan is to set up near the northwest section of the camping area near Deuce's trailer.

Don't be bashful and be sure to let R. J. Law know if you would like to play or sing. I will make sure that it happens.

We look forward to seeing you at Range War this year!
